Dear Friend:

The Alan Burke Show has just forwarded a considerable number of letters in response to my recent appearance. Your letter indicates you would like a copy of WHITEWASH. We are therefore sending you one, for which the price is $5.05, which includes 10¢ postage.

It was kind of you to write. We appreciate your interest and hope you will find the book as worthwhile as so many others have.

Should any of your friends or acquaintances be unable to obtain WHITEWASH from their book stores, we are, of course, happy to mail it; but there are no bookstores in your area which cannot obtain it from their usual sources, including the Bookazine Company and the Dimondstein Company.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg

Dear Mr Weisberg

My check for $5.05 is enclosed. I am sorry for the delay but due to financial difficulties was unable to send it sooner. Frankly, I would not have ordered the book if I'd known the price in advance.

Your dunning letter signed by 'L Weisberg' was infuriating. The writer was interested only in $5.05 - not any reason I had for not paying sooner. If I were nearer the P.O. & it wouldn't have been so much trouble I'd have sent the book back after that. I assume 'L Weisberg' is related to you. Accept my sympathy.
